
CORE VALUES

As a company, The Risk Factor has always maintained a set of strict principles which we believe sets a benchmark standard for our industry. Our Core Values embody the fundamental beliefs of our organisation. These guiding principles dictate behaviour and can help our employees understand the difference between right and wrong. Core values also help us determine if we are fulfilling our goals by creating an unwavering guide. It also ensures that we maintain our commitment to the Cii code of ethics.

Teamwork

I pride myself on being part of a successful team. We share our skills, knowledge and experience to deliver the best solutions for ourselves and our clients.

Integrity

I always act in an ethical and transparent manner; ensuring our clients can trust that their best interests are being served

Innovation

We create bold non-standard solutions to the unique challenges facing our clients.

Wellbeing

I bring good humour, empathy and energy to our workplace. I treat everyone with compassion, respect and fairness.

Credibility

To be deserving of credit from both our clients and insurers.

Opportunity

I learn from my mistakes and celebrate my wins. I consistently learn, grow and master so that I can help my fellow team members and clients learn, grow and master too.
